ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE
ARCHIVES

President

I am happy to have this opportunity to wish our students well for myself, and also on behalf of the administration as a whole. To the graduates of 1989 in particular go our best wishes for the future. The past year has been an exciting one, as we move forward in the complex and crucial process of renewal, a process which has brought the support and the enthusiastic participation of every constituency, not the least that of the undergraduates. We have also enjoyed the remarkable encouragement of the Capital Campaign, the final word on which will be made known at June Convocation. Suffice now to say that we look forward with confidence to a revialization of our best traditions of teaching, scholarship, innovation and familial community. We hope that you will all continue your involvement in the future, and that this book will remind you of the good things that St. Michael's College has brought to you, as we intend that it shall to your successors.

James McConica, C.S.B.

Vice-President

I am pleased to congratulate members of the 1989 graduating class and extend the best wishes for the future.

Decisions made throughout your successful career will remind you of the pride in your accomplishment during your course of studies at our college

Renford MacDonald

Principal

Your years spent at St Michael's College and in the University of Toronto have now a special meaning for each of you as a graduate. This experience undoubtedly was a complex one: great moments mixed with some that were not so great; periods of exhilarating joy mixed with moments of sadness, even desperation - in short, an experience of life. Granted this complexity, interpreting the human condition through literature and philosophy, through a more mature understanding of one's religious faith, have been opened up during your years here. Various skills and talents, formerly latent, have begun to blossom. They will enrich your life - both in work and in leisure time.

But if all of this experience has a special, personal meaning for you now, that meaning will, we hope, continue to grow and develope as you continue to grow and develope.

This yearbook can play an important part in that growth and development as you reassess what St. Michael's has meant for you. At the very least, this pictoral record of your classmates, teammates, club or pubmates, will enable you to flawless and unhesitating introductions at the many joyful homecoming weekends we hope you will attend at St. Michael's. We look forward to welcoming you back.

W.B. Dunphy

Alumni

The Windrose is a book for all seasons and for all St. Michael's people. It has special meaning for the members of the graduating class. To them, on behalf of the St. Michael's College Alumni Association, I extend congratulations and best wishes and express the hope that your future days will be joyful. May the friendships you have made at St. Michael's be a source of support for you and may the values that guide the College continue to guide your lives. The Alumni have been with you in many ways during your years here. Now you become one of them. Please help the Association keep you in touch with the college and with each other. Let us know where you are and what you are doing. And to all the other St. Michael's people, continue to enjoy your life here and – keep plugging!

ORGANIZATIONS

The St. Michael's College undergraduate shares a special relationship with the college. This year, students have enthusiastically upheld the traditions unique to St. Mike's, and made a commitment to the future of our college. It has been a privilege and a pleasure to be a part of this.

We hope this yearbook will spark many warm memories of '88-'89, and wish you every success in the future.

Yearbook

That's me lounging by the pool in the Bahamas during reading week. Vacations are never long enough. The production of a yearbook is a demanding task and requires lots of help. Thanks to Kristin Comerford for the great division pages. Thank-you to Greg Hum for taking pictures and teaching me how to use a camera and also thanks to his roommate Cullen Hawken, who was always willing to fill in when Greg wasn't around; also, thanks to Baird Robinson for providing some great formal and residence shots, even though I did have to wait two months for the film. Alisha O'Mara was a great help with inspirational? captions and thanks to all those on third floor Loretto for helping her when she ran out of ideas.

A yearbook is an important chronicle of your life while in high school and perhaps even more so in university. Unfortunately due to the enormity of the task in producing a yearbook, few are willing to help. While grateful for the help received this year, it is unfortunate that more students at St. Mike's do not take an interest in a yearbook that is produced solely for their benefit. Years from now, when reminiscing about the good times at St. Mike's, a yearbook ensures that memories and the faces of friends gone separate ways are preserved. Your support of Windrose is essential to its survival. It would be a shame to let the memories fade.

SMC Goes South

February 10, 1989. Reading Week Liftoff.

An exclusive St. Mike's engagement saw 12 select athletes led by "Mike Brioux and Bredan Ara Adventure Tours" cover unchartered ground at the southern most point of the earth. Unlike their fellow student-travellers, these "rebels" really went south. After a decadent night in Buenos Aires, the "non-infected" students hopped a hovercraft for Nanuk base camp on the Phlemish peninsula. A day's cross-country skiing and Mammoth hunt left our adventurers "beat"; but still frisky enough to push on. Daily doses of kayaking, rock-climbing, skiing and snorkling made for a spiffy 6 days. The $299 ($499 with heat) pricetag was a once in a lifetime deal. Although this year's Jacques Couteau's Titanic plunder and treasure hunt may top it. If this year's yearbook ever comes out on time ask William Lee at S.M.C.S.U. for details.

The victims were:
Bredan Ara, Linda Baldwin, Mike Brioux, Mark Drever, John Hayes, Cathy Huebel, Jackie King, Steve Monte, Heather Murphy, Lisa Shrenk, Phil Syron, Christine Thibeault.

The Royal Bank opens up three exciting opportunities in the financial world.

Working within Canada's largest banking organization means you have room to grow. If you're interested in building a solid career in the financial world, the Royal Bank offers stability and the opportunity to develop in a number of specialized areas. These are just some of the reasons the Royal Bank was voted one of the 100 best companies to work for in Canada ... and we're proud of it!

1. Executive Account Manager

Managing high-end personal accounts, you will deal with sophisticated, professional clients. You will manage the complete client relationship including investment and tax related borrowing for your clientele.

Requirements are for a highly motivated self-starter, personable enough to successfully network with V.I.P.'s. You must be a confident negotiator, proficient in balance sheet lending and committed to service excellence.

Preference will be given those candidates with 4-5 years related business experience. A business degree is an asset.

2. Independent Business Account Manager

You will manage business client portfolios -- from small to medium sized companies. Your responsibilities will include increasing the business client base, managing borrower risk, and analysing new credit proposals.

These positions provide the opportunity to progress to senior management levels for those individuals with proven success.

Requirements are for a dynamic, self-motivated individual with a keen interest in client service. Strong sales ability combined with analytical proficiency and good interpersonal skills are also necessary. Preference will be given those with a minimum two year successful background in an account management role.

3. Personal Bankers

In this position, you will work with and manage the accounts of individual consumer clients in the areas of deposits, investments and loans. Your focus will be on quality of service and relationship building. Your major strengths will be in salesmanship and interpersonal skills.

Large volumes of work in these positions require individuals with superior organizational skills, who perform well under pressure. As we provide a comprehensive training program, past experience is not a pre-requisite if you are hardworking and excel in dealing with people. Successful performers, in time, can advance to specialization in portfolio relationship management.

Fulfill your career potential with Canada's largest bank.

IF YOU'RE WILLING TO MAKE THE CAREER INVESTMENT WE'LL HELP YOU MAKE THE CAREER RETURN

Every year, Zittrer, Siblin, Stein, Levine engages top university graduates interested in becoming Chartered Accountants. The U.F.E. success rate of our trainees has been outstanding. So joining the firm is a bit like becoming a member of an exclusive club.

You will benefit from ZSSL's highly structured and comprehensive personalized professional development program, consisting of a multi-media approach to both theory and practice.

Your initial two-year training program will include professional development weeks held in the Laurentians, in-house workshops and seminars, and an intensive preparation course for the Uniform Final Examination. You will be exposed to auditing, accounting and taxation, as well as to financial services, management consulting and EDP services. Working directly with a diversified clientele, you will be using the most up-to-date software and audit techniques in a marketing-oriented environment. And you will be given as much responsibility as you are willing to accept.

We are committed not only to excellence, but to the quality of the relationships between Partners and staff. As a member of ZSSL's "big family", you will see that we stress both individual efforts and team work and why we are the only chartered accounting firm in the country listed in The Financial Post Selects the 100 Best Companies to Work for in Canada... We really look forward to meeting you during the on-campus recruitment.

"We have positioned ourselves to deal intelligently with change"

R. Donald Fullerton

The de-regulation of financial markets has created a highly volatile marketplace as financial institutions reposition themselves to take advantage of available opportunities.

We focus on three market segments to address the changes necessary in the way we do business. Our objective, quite simply, is to become the top performing Canadian bank.

At CIBC, individual and collective talents are challenged to address the growth and international competitiveness associated with a changing financial industry.

Join our team of Individual, Corporate and Investment Bankers or our group of Systems Professionals. Contact your Student Placement Office or write to the Manager, Human Resources Department, at the Regional Office nearest you.

GO TO THE HEART OF BUSINESS.

Many public accounting firms will train you to be an accountant. At Clarkson Gordon we will develop you as a business advisor – a training that will open up a tremendous range of senior career opportunities within our firm or in virtually every area of business and government, in Canada and worldwide.

You will be given hands on decision making responsibility in a wide variety of business situations, where you will be challenged to your highest capacity. And rewarded accordingly.

You'll benefit from a unique staff structure and a training program that consistently produces one of the highest CA graduate rates in the profession. And at every step of the way, you'll be backed by the experience and resources of one of the most respected firms in Canada.

For full details on how Clarkson Gordon can show you the road to the heart of business, write to either:

XEROX

"Winning isn't everything. It's the only thing."

"It isn't whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game."

"If you don't win, you lose"...and on and on and on.

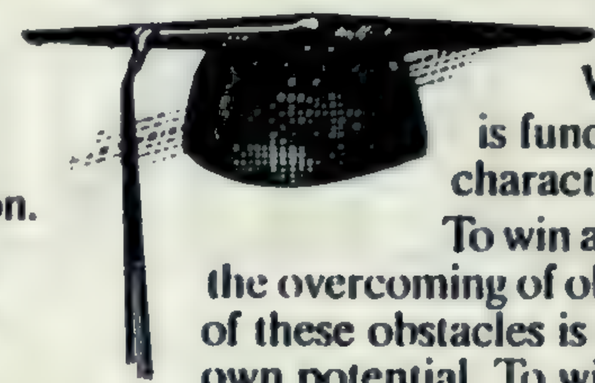
Ask a dozen people today what it means to win or what it takes to be a winner, and chances are you'll come up with a dozen or more answers.

At Xerox, we have our own ideas about winning and winners.

To begin with, we believe winning is a team effort. Maybe that's because we've never met a winner who in some way hasn't been trained, coached, encouraged or just plain influenced by another human being.



We also believe that winning is fundamentally a by-product of character.

To win at anything of value requires the overcoming of obstacles. Often, the greatest of these obstacles is a wavering faith in our own potential. To win, in our opinion, is to go the distance. It is the ability to endure and persevere.

Winning, as far as we're concerned, is the ability to stretch oneself and be better for the effort. In the final analysis, winning is anything but easy. It is, however, the ultimate recognition of our struggle.

A PERMANENT OFFER IN A DISPOSABLE WORLD

In the beginning there was a revolutionary idea: make a product that is used once, then thrown away.

More than sixty years and billions of disposables later, Kimberly-Clark is still proving how one great idea can keep on growing. From household names like Kleenex,* Kotex,* Delsey,* and Huggies, to major commercial product lines: Kimberly-Clark has become an industry innovator in the disposables world.

The rapid growth and introduction of new products have also made Kimberly-Clark a major Canadian employer.

And right now, we're looking for fresh faces to grow with us, in engineering, finance, marketing and other key areas.

If you're the kind of person who is stimulated by new ideas and change, who is challenged by responsibility, and who expects personal fulfillment from your work, we'd like to talk to you.

At Kimberly-Clark, our products may be disposable, but our commitment to finding and keeping the best people is very permanent.
